The Beatitudes January 29th, 2023

"The Beatitudes are the way of life that the Lord teaches us, so that we can follow in his footsteps... The Beatitudes are the image of Christ and consequently of each Christian.

Here I would like to mention only one: "Blessed are the meek"...Meekness is a way of living and acting that draws us close to Jesus and to one another. It enables us to set aside everything that divides and estranges us, and to find ever new ways to advance along the path of unity...

With that meekness, we come to understand the grandeur of God and worship him with sincere hearts. For meekness is the attitude of those who have nothing to lose, because their only wealth is God.

The Beatitudes are in some sense the Christian's identity card. They identify us as followers of Jesus. We are called to be blessed, to be followers of Jesus, to confront the troubles and anxieties of our age with the spirit and love of Jesus. Thus we ought to be able to recognize and respond to new situations with fresh spiritual energy.

Blessed are those who remain faithful while enduring evils inflicted on them by others, and forgive them from their heart. Blessed are those who look into the eyes of the abandoned and marginalized, and show them their closeness.

Blessed are those who see God in every person, and strive to make others also discover him. Blessed are those who protect and care for our common home. Blessed are those who renounce their own comfort in order to help others. Blessed are those who pray and work for full communion between Christians. All these are messengers of God's mercy and tenderness, and surely they will receive from him their merited reward.

Dear brothers and sisters, the call to holiness is directed to everyone and must be received from the Lord in a spirit of faith. The saints spur us on by their lives and their intercession before God, and we ourselves need one another if we are to become saints. Helping one another to become saints!

Together let us implore the grace to accept this call with joy and to join in bringing it to fulfilment..."

Pope Francis

November 1, 2016 Mass Solemnity of All Saints

Condolences

In faith and love, we extend our heartfelt sympathy to the family and friends of Alma Brown, who passed away on December 23, 2022 at the age of 92, and we join with them in prayer during this difficult time of loss.

To God, the dead do not die, and in death our life is changed, not ended. One day we shall all be joyfully re-united, when the love of Christ, which conquers all things, destroys even death itself. Then, "God will wipe away every tear from our eyes. Death will be no more; and mourning and crying and pain will be no more." (Rev. 21)

Confident in Mary, Mother of us all, we entrust to her the soul of our departed sister so that she may present her to Jesus. Eternal rest grant unto Alma, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her. May she rest in peace. Amen

Request for Toques and Mitts

Fellow parishioners please remember we still need toques and mitts for the children and less fortunate adults in our community. Donation box is in the gathering space. Thank you for your help.

Walking Together Toward Truth, Healing, Reconciliation, and Hope (Compilation of Pope Francis's Speeches)

During Pope Francis's recent Apostolic Visit to Canada, in July 2022, he pronounced many speeches and homilies, which have been assembled in a bilingual commemorative booklet. Each allocution is accompanied by a full-page photo of the event where it was given, as well as a short introduction by Archbishop Richard Smith, General Coordinator of the Papal Visit, in order to contextualize the words spoken by Pope Francis.

The Archdiocese of St. Boniface has a limited quantity of these books available for purchase at a discounted price of $25 (cash or cheque) and can be obtained in person at the reception desk of the Archdiocesan Centre (151 Avenue de la Cathédrale) while supplies last.

Stewardship January 29, 2023

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven."

MATTHEW 5:3

The phrase "poor in spirit" can be confusing. Think of it in this sense – poor in spirit means depending on God's providence and not depending on our own self-reliance.

Being detached from earthly things (power, money, and comfort) and being attached to heavenly things (charity, sacrifice, and mercy). Stewardship is denying ourselves from satisfying our desires and helping others obtain their basic needs.
