15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 11, 2021

Knowing and Sharing Jesus

In today's Gospel, Jesus sends out his twelve apostles to carry out his message to the world.

They had very little with them on their journey, they were to trust in the providence of God. They had to let go of their securities and trust that God knows what he is doing.

Just like the Apostles, we are called to proclaim the message of Jesus to the world through our words and deeds. By virtue of our baptism, every Christian is sent out to bear witness to Christ. However, we cannot share what we do not have. In order to share Christ, we have to know Christ.

We can get to know him by praying to him, listening to him and reading the Bible. Like any relationship, our relationship with Jesus is never static. We never stop growing closer to him or learning more about him. There will never be a time when we know all that there is to know.

We also need to ensure we are living our faith, for we cannot ask others to live out what we do not live out. This does not mean we will be perfect, we are human after all, but we must be honest in our walk with God and do our best to live out his teachings.

In today's Gospel, the twelve apostles are to trust in God to sustain them in their journey. Like the Apostles, we are also called to trust that God will sustain us in our journey. Regardless of any setbacks we may encounter along the way, we are called to continue moving forward and to persevere in our efforts to grow closer to God and make him known to the world.

Light A Candle to Honour the Children Found in Kamloops

215 ribbons have been set up in front of the ruins at St Boniface Cathedral to honour the children found at the residential school in Kamloops. You are invited, UNTIL THE END OF THE SUMMER, to come individually to light a candle in front of one of the ribbons.

If you have a candle, please bring it in a jar to prevent it from blowing out, and bring the means to light it. Please tell your friends. And please respect the public health restrictions.

COVID-19 Restrictions Update

A new set of public health orders took effect on Saturday, June 26 at 12:01 a.m. and will be in effect until Monday, August 2 at 12:01 a.m. If there are any updates in pandemic protocols, we will let you know by email as there is only one bulletin in July.

Indoor faith-based services can resume at 25 per cent capacity to a limit of 25 persons with masks worn at all times, and with physical distancing measures in place.

For Holy Redeemer Parish this means that we can have a maximum of 25 people attending each Mass. Please note that the liturgical team (presider, parish life director, server, cantor, etc.) are not counted as part of the 25 person limit. Indoor weddings, funerals and baptisms remain limited to 10 persons.

If you would like to attend a weekend Mass, please call or email the office the week prior to book a space. Bookings will take place on a first come, first served basis.

Thank you for your patience and understanding. Let us continue to pray for one another...and to stay safe.
