Body and Blood of Christ

"In Italy and in many countries we are celebrating the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ — the Latin name is often used: Corpus Domini or Corpus Christi. Every Sunday the ecclesial community gathers around the Eucharist, the sacrament instituted by Jesus at the Last Supper. Nevertheless, each year we joyfully celebrate the feast dedicated to this Mystery that is central to the faith, in order to fully express our adoration to Christ who offers himself as the food and drink of salvation.

Today's Gospel passage, taken from Saint John, is part of the sermon on the "bread of life". Jesus states: "I am the living bread which came down from heaven; if any one eats of this bread...; and the bread which I shall give for the life of the world is my flesh". He means to say that the Father has sent him into the world as the food of eternal life, and for this reason he will sacrifice himself, his flesh.

Indeed, on the Cross, Jesus gave his body and shed his blood. The Son of Man crucified is the true Paschal Lamb, who delivers us from the slavery of sin and sustains us on the journey to the promised land. The Eucharist is the sacrament of his flesh given so as to give life to the world; those who are nourished by this food abide in Jesus and live through him. To assimilate Jesus means to abide in him, to become children in the Son.

In the Eucharist Jesus, as he did with the disciples at Emmaus, draws alongside us, pilgrims in history, to nourish the faith, hope and charity within us; to comfort us in trials; to sustain us in the commitment to justice and peace.

This supportive presence of the Son of God is everywhere: in cities and the countryside, in the North and South of the world, in countries with a Christian tradition and in those newly evangelized. In the Eucharist he offers himself as spiritual strength so as to help us put into practice his commandment — to love one another as he loved us — building communities that are welcoming and open to the needs of all, especially the most frail, poor and needy people.

Nourishing ourselves of the Eucharistic Jesus also means abandoning ourselves trustingly to him and allowing ourselves to be guided by him. It means welcoming Jesus in place of one's own "me". In this way the love freely received from Jesus in the Eucharistic Communion, by the work of the Holy Spirit, nourishes our love for God and for the brothers and sisters we meet along the daily journey. Nourished by the Body of Christ, we become ever more concretely the mystical Body of Christ.

May the Virgin Mary, who was ever united to Jesus Bread of Life, help us to rediscover the beauty of the Eucharist, to nourish ourselves of it with faith, so as to live in communion with God and with our brothers and sisters."

Pope Francis*

Archbishop LeGatt: The Next Five Years

Having celebrated the milestone of his 70th birthday, Archbishop LeGatt reflects on what is to come. Indeed, all bishops are required to submit their resignation to the Holy Father at the age of 75.

Given this, Archbishop Albert shares with us his priorities for the remaining five years of his service to our local Church, including Households of Faith, the solidification of a local priesthood (for all priests, including those who were born elsewhere), continuing to build a strong relationship with our friends at the Archdiocese of Winnipeg, and to make one last pastoral visit to each and every parish and mission in the diocese.

Truly, his ministry here has been a blessed time for Archbishop Albert, and he looks forward to what is to come with the people of Saint-Boniface!
