Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

"The two parables, which the Liturgy presents us today, – the two parables – are inspired precisely by ordinary life and reveal the attentive and deep gaze of Jesus, who observes reality and, through small everyday images, opens the windows on the mystery of God and on human history. In this way, Jesus teaches us that even everyday things, which at times all seem the same and which we carry on with distraction or tiredness, are inhabited by God's hidden presence; that is, they have meaning. So, we too need attentive eyes, to be able "to seek and find God in all things."

Today Jesus compares the Kingdom of God, that is, his presence that dwells in the heart of things and of the world, to the mustard seed, that is, to the smallest seed there is: it is really tiny. Yet, cast upon the ground, it grows until becoming the tallest tree (cf. Mk 4:31-32). The Gospel assures us – God is at work, like a good little seed that silently and slowly germinates. And, little by little, it becomes a lush tree, which gives life and rest to everyone. The seed of our good works too can seem like a small thing, yet all that is good pertains to God, and thus it humbly, slowly bears fruit. Good, let us remember, always grows in a humble way, in a hidden, often invisible way.

Dear brothers and sisters, with this parable Jesus wants to instill us with confidence. In so many of life's situations, indeed, it may happen that we get discouraged, because we see the weakness of good as compared to the apparent power of evil. This is our confidence, this is what gives us the strength to go forward every day, patiently, sowing the good that will bear fruit.

To cultivate the confidence of being in God's hands and at the same time for all of us to commit ourselves to rebuilding and starting up again, with patience and perseverance.

In the Church too, weeds of doubt can take root, especially when we witness the crisis of faith and the failure of different projects and initiatives. But let us never forget that the results of sowing do not depend on our abilities: they depend on the action of God. It is up to us to sow, and sow with love, with dedication and with patience. But the force of the seed is divine. Jesus explains it in today's other parable: the farmer sows the seed and then does not realize how it bears fruit, because it is the seed itself that grows spontaneously, day and night, when he least expects it (cf. vv. 26-29). With God in the most infertile soil there is always the hope of new sprouts."

Pope Francis Angelus June 13, 2021

Happy Father's Day

June 16, 2024

"St. Joseph is a model for every father.

I, therefore entrust to his protection

all who are fathers.

Thank you for all you do for your children.

Best wishes to you.

May St. Joseph bless you and accompany you."

Pope Francis

Our K-6 Catechism program consists of weekly classes held on Thursday evenings. Children's Choir practice begins at 6:30 and Catechism Class takes place from 7:00-8:00 p.m.

Condolences

In faith and love, we extend our sympathy to the family and friends of Helen Sorobey, who was a parishioner of Holy Redeemer for a number of years, who passed away on June 9, 2024 at the age of 101. Funeral Mass will take place on Saturday, June 22, 2024 at 10 a.m. at Holy Redeemer Parish. Interment to follow in Holy Ghost Cemetery, 4387 Main Street.

We join with them in prayer during this time of loss.

To God, the dead do not die, and in death our life is changed, not ended. One day we shall all be joyfully re-united, when the love of Christ, which conquers all things, destroys even death itself. Then, "God will wipe away every tear from our eyes. Death will be no more; and mourning and crying and pain will be no more." (Rev. 21)

Confident in Mary, Mother of us all, we entrust to her the soul of our departed sister so that she may present her to Jesus. Eternal rest grant unto Helen, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her. May she rest in peace. Amen.
