Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

“Jesus sends his disciples to prepare the place where they will celebrate the Passover meal. As we contemplate and worship the Lord’s presence in the Eucharistic Bread, we too should ask where, in what “place”, we want to prepare the Lord’s Passover. I would like to answer these questions by reflecting on three images from the Gospel we just heard (Mk 14:12-16, 22-26).

The first is that of the man carrying a pitcher of water (cf. v. 13). All of us walk through life with pitcher in hand: all of us thirst for love, for joy, for a fulfilling life in a more humane world. For ours is a deeper thirst, a thirst that God alone can satisfy. To celebrate the Eucharist, we need first to recognize our thirst for God, to sense our need for him, to long for his presence and love, to realize that we cannot go it alone, but need the Food and Drink of eternal life to sustain us on our journey. Our thirst for God brings us to the altar.

The second image from the Gospel is that of the Upper Room (cf. v. 15). This room where Jesus and his disciples would celebrate the Passover meal was located in the house of someone who offered them hospitality. He gave Jesus the best he had, because everything surrounding the great sacrament should be great.

A large room for a tiny piece of Bread. God makes himself tiny, like a morsel of bread. That is precisely why we need a great heart to be able to recognize, adore and receive him. The Church too must be a large room. A Church with open doors, that gathers and celebrates around Christ, is a large room where everyone – the righteous and sinners – can enter.

A third image from the Gospel is that of Jesus breaking the bread. It is the distinctive sign of our faith and the place where we encounter the Lord who offers himself so that we can be reborn to new life. The Lord who does not demand sacrifices, but sacrifices himself. In celebrating and experiencing the Eucharist, we too are called to share in this love.

Brothers and sisters, today where should we go “to prepare the Lord’s supper”? May we become a Church with pitcher in hand, a Church that reawakens thirst and brings water. Let us open wide our hearts in love, so that we can become the large and welcoming room where everyone can enter and meet the Lord. Let us break the bread of our lives in compassion and solidarity, so that through us the world may see the grandeur of God’s love. Then the Lord will come, he will surprise us once more, he will again become food for the life of the world.”
