Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"In today's liturgy the episode of the storm calmed by Jesus (Mk 4:35-41) is told. The boat on which the disciples are crossing the lake is beaten by the wind and waves and they are afraid they will sink. Jesus is with them on the boat, yet he is in the stern asleep on the cushion. The disciples, filled with fear, cry out to him: "Teacher, do you not care if we perish?" (v. 38).

And quite often we too, beaten by the trials of life, have cried out to the Lord: "Why do you remain silent and do nothing for me?". Especially when it seems we are sinking, because of love or the project in which we have laid great hopes disappears; or when we feel we are drowning in problems or lost in the middle of the sea of life, with no course and no harbour. There are many moments in which we feel we are in a storm; we feel we are almost done in.

In these situations and in many others, we too feel suffocated by fear and, like the disciples, risk losing sight of the most important thing. On the boat, in fact, even if he is sleeping, Jesus is there, and he shares with his own all that is happening. His slumber, on the one hand surprises us, yet on the other it puts us to the test. The Lord is there, present; indeed, he waits – so to speak – for us to engage him, to invoke him, to put him at the centre of what we are experiencing.

Today we can ask ourselves: what are the winds that beat against my life? Let us say all this to Jesus; let us tell him everything. He wants this; he wants us to grab hold of him to find shelter from the unexpected waves of life. This is the beginning of our faith: to recognize that alone we are unable to stay afloat. When we overcome the temptation to close ourselves off, when we overcome the false religiosity that does not want to disturb God, when we cry out to him, he can work wonders in us. It is the gentle and extraordinary power of prayer, which works miracles.

Jesus, begged by the disciples, calms the wind and waves. And he asks them a question, a question which also pertains to us: "Why are you afraid? Have you no faith?" (v. 40). The disciples were gripped with fear, because they were focused on the waves more than looking at Jesus. It is this way for us too: how often we remain fixated on problems rather than going to the Lord and casting our concerns into him! Today, let us ask for the grace of a faith that never tires of seeking the Lord, of knocking at the door of his Heart. May the Virgin Mary, who in her life never stopped trusting in God, reawaken in us the basic need of entrusting ourselves to him each day."

Condolences

In faith and love, we extend our sympathy to the family and friends of Robert Beaudry, who was a parishioner of Holy Redeemer for a number of years, who passed away on June 17, 2024 at the age of 81. Funeral Mass will take place on Friday, July 12, 2024 at 11 a.m. at Holy Redeemer Parish. Refreshments and a light lunch will immediately follow in the parish hall. A private interment will occur at a later date.

We join with them in prayer during this time of loss.

To God, the dead do not die, and in death our life is changed, not ended. One day we shall all be joyfully re-united, when the love of Christ, which conquers all things, destroys even death itself. Then, "God will wipe away every tear from our eyes. Death will be no more; and mourning and crying and pain will be no more." (Rev. 21)

Confident in Mary, Mother of us all, we entrust to her the soul of our departed brother so that she may present him to Jesus. Eternal rest grant unto Robert, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May he rest in peace. Amen.
