Love One Another

In today's Gospel, we hear Jesus at the Last Supper giving a new commandment: that we love one another. The disciples are to make known the Good News to the world and do it out of love. Jesus tells them "everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

Love is about wanting what is best for one another. Just as God loves and wants what is best for us, we are called to do the same for others. For just as we are made in the image and likeness of God, so is everyone else we meet.

We are called to love everyone, not just those we get along with. We are called to love our enemies; those we disagree with; who are different than we are; who have different viewpoints; who hurt us. Loving one another as Jesus does is not easy, but it is the commandment Jesus calls us to.

How can we love someone who causes us pain, difficulties and hurt? We have to remember what love means. St. Thomas defines love as "willing the good of the other". Loving someone does not mean we have to be friends with them, it means we desire the best for them and never forgetting they are a child of God.

We may not be able to change someone, but we can choose how we respond. God can help heal and move us towards forgiveness for our own healing. As we pray in the Lord's Prayer: "Forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us." We are called not just to pray for ourselves, but for others as well.

Pope Francis stated that "to love is a gift of God, and we have to ask. And he gives it willingly, if we ask it. Showing love to others is not something that we do to shine a light on who or what we are, but to show better who God is, and what he freely gives to us. We need the Lord to continually renew this gift in our hearts, through the experience of his infinite mercy. God's love never fails and if we ask, he will give us the grace to love more perfectly."
