Most Holy Trinity

“On this feast in which we celebrate God: the mystery of the one God. And this God is the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. The Father is God; the Son is God; the Spirit is God. But they are not three gods: it is one God in three Persons. It is a mystery that Jesus Christ revealed to us: the Holy Trinity.

Today we stop to celebrate this mystery, because the Persons are not adjectives of God, no. They are real, diverse, different Persons. There is the Father to whom I pray with the Our Father; there is the Son, who gave me redemption, justification; there is the Holy Spirit who abides in us and inhabits the Church. The Father is love; the Son is love; the Holy Spirit is love. And in as much as he is love, God, while being one alone, is not solitude but communion, among the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

Because love is essentially a gift of self, and in its original and infinite reality it is the Father who gives himself by generating his Son, who in turn gives himself to the Father, and their mutual love is the Holy Spirit, the bond of their unity. It is not easy to understand, but we can live this mystery, all of us, we can live a great deal.

This mystery of the Trinity was revealed to us by Jesus himself. He showed us the face of God as merciful Father; he presented Himself, true man, as the Son of God and Word of the Father, the Saviour who gives his life for us; and he spoke of the Holy Spirit who proceeds from the Father and the Son, Spirit of Truth, Paraclete Spirit – meaning Consoler and Advocate.

Today’s celebration, therefore, makes us contemplate this marvellous mystery of love and of light from which we come and toward which our earthly journey is guided.

In the message of the Gospel and in every form of the Christian mission, one cannot overlook this unity to which Jesus calls, among us, following the unity of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit: one cannot overlook this unity. The beauty of the Gospel asks to be lived – unity – and proven in the harmony among us, who are so diverse! It is not an attitude, a manner of speaking, no; it is essential, because it is the unity that is born from love, from the mercy of God, from the justification of Jesus Christ and from the presence of the Holy Spirit in our hearts.”

Bicycle Helmets and Locks Needed

Thanks to the generosity of the Bicycle Maintenance and Repair program at River East Collegiate, members of our young refugee family now have bicycles to help them explore the neighbourhood. However before they can do so they need both bicycle locks and helmets. If you have any locks or helmets you no longer need and would be willing to donate, please give Marina Lawrence a call at 204-661-2932. Thank you.

Offering Envelopes

Just a reminder that when you are completing your offering envelopes to please put your first and last name on the envelope as well as the amount of your offering so we can properly record the offerings.

If you would like to start receiving envelopes, please contact the office. Thank you for your continued generosity to your parish.
