Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

“The scene described in the Gospel of today’s Liturgy takes place inside the Temple of Jerusalem. Jesus looks, he looks at what is happening in this most sacred of places; and he sees how the scribes love to walk around to be seen, greeted and revered, and in order to have the places of honour. At the same time, another scene catches his eyes: a poor widow, precisely one of those exploited by the powers that be, puts “everything she had, her whole living” (Mk 12:44) in the Temple treasury. The Gospel presents us with this striking contrast: the rich who give from their surplus wealth to make themselves seen, and a poor woman, who without seeming to, offers every little bit she has. Two symbols of human attitudes.

Jesus watches the two scenes. And it is this very verb — “to watch” — that sums up his teaching: “we must watch out for” those who live their faith with duplicity, like the scribes, so as not to become like them; whereas we must “watch” the widow, and take her as a model. Let us reflect on this: to watch out for hypocrites and to watch the poor widow. First of all, to watch out for hypocrites, that is, to be careful not to base our life on the cult of appearances, the external, and the exaggerated care of one’s own image. This is a warning for all time and for everyone, Church and society: never take advantage of one’s role to crush others, never make money off the backs of the weakest!

Let us ask ourselves, it will help us: do we want to be appreciated and gratified by what we say and what we do, or rather to be of service to God and neighbour, especially the weakest? Let us watch out for falsehood of the heart, for hypocrisy which is a dangerous illness of the soul!

And in order to heal this illness, Jesus invites us to watch the poor widow. The Lord denounces the exploitation of this woman, who, in making her offering, must return home without even the little she had to live on. Jesus praises the fact that this widow puts all she has into the treasury. She has nothing left, but finds her everything in God. She is not afraid of losing the little she has because she trusts in God’s abundance, and God’s abundance multiplies the joy of those who give. In the face of people’s generosity, the Lord always goes further, is more generous. This is why Jesus proposes her as a teacher of faith, this woman: she does not go to the Temple to clear her conscience, she does not pray to make herself seen, she does not show off her faith, but she gives from her heart generously and freely. Let us learn from her: a faith without external frills, but interiorly sincere; a faith composed of humble love for God and for our brothers and sisters.”

Pope Francis Angelus November 7, 2021

Almighty ever-living God, hear our prayers for those who died in defence of country and freedom; grant them eternal rest, and peace to us who keep faith with them, that we may be instruments of your reconciliation and peace, following the example of your Son. Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen
From the Roman Missal 2021

Advent Bake Sale

Ladies Auxiliary will be holding their annual Advent Bake Sale in the Gathering Space after each Mass on the weekend of Saturday November 30 and Sunday December 01. Your baking contributions will be gratefully accepted at the church on Sat. November 30 between 1:00 and 4:00 pm.

We look forward to a variety of dainties - squares, tarts, muffins, scones, small cookies, jelly and jams - from our culturally diverse community at Holy Redeemer. Not to be missed! BYO Bags for purchases. A sign-up sheet for donations will be in the Gathering Space soon.

Holy Eucharist Parish Annual Fall Supper

Holy Eucharist Parish will have their Annual Fall Supper on Sunday, November 24, 4-6 pm. This sit-down supper will have pork cutlet, perogies and sour cream, sauerkraut with Ukrainian sausage bits, meatballs and gravy, coleslaw, veggies, rolls with butter, dessert, coffee, tea, peach drink.

Tickets are $25 per person, $15 for 12 & under. Please call 204-667-8866 for tickets.

Condolences

In faith and love, we extend our sympathy to the family and friends of long time parishioner Jim Scollan Sr. We join with them in prayer during this time of loss. Funeral Mass will be held on Friday, November 22, 2024 at 11 a.m. at Holy Redeemer Parish.

To God, the dead do not die, and in death our life is changed, not ended. One day we shall all be joyfully re-united, when the love of Christ, which conquers all things, destroys even death itself. Then, "God will wipe away every tear from our eyes. Death will be no more; and mourning and crying and pain will be no more." (Rev. 21)

Confident in Mary, Mother of us all, we entrust to her the soul of our departed brother so that she may present him to Jesus. Eternal rest grant unto Jim, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May he rest in peace. Amen.

Congratulations Sacrament of Baptism

Congratulations as Liam Bergunder and Lilley Bergunder, children of Jocelyn Bergunder, were baptized on Sunday, November 3, 2024. May we welcome Liam and Lilley into our Catholic family and keep them and their family in our prayers. May God bless and keep you Liam and Lilley.

Recruiting Potential Sponsor Couples

So that we at Holy Redeemer can better assist couples prepare for Marriage, we are seeking the assistance of married couples of our church who are willing to be trained as sponsors for engaged couples. Fr. Anthony is asking couples who have been married at least 3 years and are in a canonically valid marriage to consider serving in this important ministry.

After the married volunteers have taken part in a one-afternoon and one-evening training course, they will be assigned to guide an engaged couple through a series of 6 meetings in their home. We plan to train enough married couples so that each sponsor couple will minister to no more than 2 engaged couples per year.

Please contact Fr. Anthony for more information: 204-669-0501 or email: office@hrwpg.ca.

Good Shepherd Campaign 2024

The cost to support a seminarian is about $45,000 per year. This includes accommodation and food, tuition, medical insurance and a monthly stipend. The cost to bring in an international priest is about $20,000. This cost includes legal fees, travel, language classes if needed, and an allowance for him to stock up on supplies for his first winter here.

For more answers to Frequently Asked Questions, we invite you to read our Campaign FAQs. We also invite you to discern in prayer to support the Good Shepherd Campaign 2024, because priests play a vital role in the Life of the Church. It is important that we continue to support international seminarians and priests in their vocations.

Stewardship November 3, 2024 31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

“And ‘to love him with all your heart, with all your understanding, with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself’ is worth more than all the burnt offerings and sacrifices.” – Mark 12:33

Of all the gifts that God gives us, the one He wants the most is our heart. He wants us to share out of our love for Him, not out of obligation. Using our talent in parish ministry and contributing money to support our parish mission is important, but it’s more important to spend time in prayer with God daily and discern how He is calling us to be generous with all of our gifts. Not just the visible ones, but the invisible ones like love, mercy and forgiveness.
