Christ the King November 20th, 2022

In his homily for the Solemnity of Christ the King on November 25, 2018 Pope Francis reflected on this feast day on the last Sunday of the Liturgical Year:

“Dear Brothers and Sisters, good morning! The Solemnity of Jesus Christ King of the Universe, which we celebrate today, is placed at the end of the liturgical year and recalls that the life of creation doesn’t advance by chance but proceeds to a final end: the definitive manifestation of Christ, Lord of history and of the whole of creation. The conclusion of history will be his eternal reign...”

Jesus wants to make it understood that above political power there is another greater one, which is not obtained with human means. He came on earth to exercise this power, which is love, “bearing witness to the truth (v. 37). It’s about divine truth that in the end is the essential message of the Gospel: “God is love: 1 John 4:8), and he wants to establish in the world his Kingdom of love, justice, and peace. This is the Kingdom of which Jesus is King, and which extends until the end of time.

...the Kingdom of God is founded on love and is rooted in hearts conferring on one who receives it peace, freedom, and fullness of life. We all want peace, we all want freedom and we want fullness.

And how does it come about? Let the love of God, the Kingdom of God, the love of Jesus take root in your heart and you’ll have peace, you’ll have freedom and you’ll have fullness.

Today Jesus asks us to let him become our King. A King that with his word, his example and his immolated life on the cross, has saved us from death, and this King points out the way to lost man; he gives new light to our existence, marked by doubt, by fear, and by everyday trials.

However, we must not forget that Jesus’ Kingdom is not of this world. He can give new meaning to our life, sometimes harshly tried also by our mistakes and our sins, only on the condition that we do not follow the logic of the world and of its “kings.”

May the Virgin Mary help us to welcome Jesus as King of our life and to spread His Kingdom, giving witness to the truth, which is love.”

Change to Bringing up the Gifts at Saturday Mass

The bringing up of the gifts will continue to take place at Sunday Mass, and the passing of the collection basket will continue to take place at both Masses. Thank you.
