32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time November 6th, 2022

In his Angelus on November 10, 2019, Pope Francis spoke about today's Gospel reading about the Sadducees questioning Jesus about marriage in heaven.

"Today's Gospel reading offers us a wonderful teaching of Jesus on the resurrection of the dead. Jesus is asked by some Sadducees, who did not believe in the resurrection and therefore provoke Him with an insidious question: in resurrection, whose wife would a woman be if she had seven successive husbands, who were all brothers, who all died one after the other? Jesus does not fall into the trap and replies that in the hereafter the risen "neither marry nor are given in marriage, for they cannot die anymore, because they are equal to angels and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection" This is how Jesus responds.

With this response, first and foremost, Jesus invites His interlocutors — and us too — to consider that this earthly dimension in which we now live is not the only dimension, but that there is another, no longer subject to death, which will fully manifest that we are children of God. It is of great comfort and hope to listen to this simple and clear word of Jesus about life beyond death; we need it very much especially in our time, so rich in knowledge about the universe but so lacking in wisdom about eternal life.

Jesus' clear certainty about resurrection is based entirely on the fidelity of God, Who is the God of life. In fact, behind the question of the Sadducees is hidden a more profound question: not only whose wife will be the widow of the seven husbands, but to whom will her life belong. This is a doubt that touches mankind of every age and also us: after this earthly pilgrimage, what will become of our life? Will it belong to nothing, to death?

Jesus responds that life belongs to God, who loves us and cares very deeply about us, to the point of linking His name to ours: He is "the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob. Now He is not God of the dead, but of the living, for all live to him". Life exists where there is [a] bond, communion, brotherhood; and it is a life stronger than death when it is built on true relationships and bonds of fidelity. On the contrary, there is no life where one has the presumption of belonging only to oneself and of living as an island: death prevails in these attitudes. It is selfishness. If I live for myself, I am sowing death in my heart.

May the Virgin Mary help us to live every day from the perspective of what we affirm in the final part of the Creed: "We look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come"."

2022 Good Shepherd Campaign

During this second week of the Good Shepherd Campaign, we invite you to visit the Archdiocesan website or Facebook page to watch the video featuring parishioners of St-Eugène sharing about their experiences of small faith sharing groups and the impacts these different groups have had on their faith lives.

Please prayerfully consider supporting the 2022 Good Shepherd Campaign. As Diana and Victoria shared, priests play a vital role in our faith lives and it is important that we continue supporting seminarians in their vocations.

We invite you to pray for all of the Households of Faith in our diocese, that the members would continue to grow in relationship with God and each other.

Stewardship - November 6, 2022

"May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who has loved us and given us everlasting encouragement and good hope through his grace, encourage your hearts and strengthen them in every good deed and word."

2 Thessalonians 2:16-17

There are two important lessons here. First, we are called to be generous with our encouragement and hope with others. As God shows us mercy, we must be merciful to others. Second, joy is contagious! The joy we receive from doing good works not only strengthens us, it encourages others as well. Share the joy of living your faith whenever you can.

Understanding Our Personal Conversion: Sharing Key Faith Moments Tuesday, November 8, 2022

Join us on Tuesday, November 8, 2022, at 7 p.m. in the basement of the St. Boniface Cathedral for a talk by guest speaker André Regnier, co-founder and member of the executive team of Catholic Christian Outreach. We will be accepting donations at the door. Please contact Katelyn Sutton at (204) 594-0275 or ksutton@archsaintboniface.ca with any questions.
