29th Sunday in Ordinary Time October 16th, 2022

In his weekly audience on May 25, 2016 Pope Francis commented on the Parable of the Persistent Widow and the Unjust Judge found in today's Gospel.

The Gospel parable we just heard contains an important teaching: "The need always to pray and not lose heart". Therefore, it is not a matter of praying sometimes, when I feel like it. No, Jesus says that we need "always to pray and not lose heart." And he offers the example of the widow and the judge...

Jesus draws a twofold conclusion from this parable: if the widow managed to bend the unjust judge by her insistent pleas, how much more God, who is a good and just Father, "will vindicate his elect, who cry to him day and night"; and moreover, "he will not delay long over them" but will act "speedily".

That is why Jesus exhorts us to pray "without losing heart." We all experience moments of weariness and discouragement, especially when our prayer seems ineffective. But Jesus assures us: unlike the unjust judge, God promptly answers his children, even if this does not mean that he does so according to the time or in the ways we would like.

Prayer is not a magic wand! It helps us to preserve faith in God, to trust in Him even when we do not understand his will...

The object of prayer is of secondary importance; what matters above all is one's relationship with the Father. This is what prayer does: it transforms desire and shapes it according to the will of God, whatever it may be, because he who prays aspires first of all to union with God, who is merciful Love.

The parable ends with a question: "When the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?" And with this question, we are all warned: we must not give up on prayer, even if it is not reciprocated. It is prayer that keeps faith alive; without it faith falters!

Let us ask the Lord for a faith that becomes unceasing, persevering prayer, like that of the widow in the parable, a faith that is nourished by the desire for his coming. And in the prayer we experience the compassion of God, who as a Father comes to the aid of his children full of merciful love."

Stewardship October 16, 2022 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“...proclaim the word, be persistent whether it is convenient or inconvenient...”
2 Timothy 4:2

It is not always convenient to be a good steward, especially when all the temptations of our busy and materialistic world get in the way. Now add our own pride and ego into the equation and living a stewardship lifestyle may be downright uncomfortable!

Remember, God didn't call us to be comfortable. He never said that we would have an easy life. Rather, He called us to be faithful!

Marriage Tips

Generosity does not mean never saying "no." Boundaries are important in every relationship. If you feel stretched too thin, check your priorities and pray for guidance in when to say "yes" and when to say "no."
