25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

This Sunday, September 24, is the World Day of Migrants and Refugees. Below is a portion of Pope Francis' Message for the 109th World Day of Migrants and Refugees 2023.

Free to choose whether to migrate or to stay

Dear brothers and sisters!

The migratory flows of our times are the expression of a complex and varied phenomenon that, to be properly understood, requires a careful analysis of every aspect of its different stages, from departure to arrival, including the possibility of return. As a contribution to this effort, I have chosen to devote the Message for the 109th World Day of Migrants and Refugees to the freedom that should always mark the decision to leave one's native land.

"Free to leave, free to stay" was the title of an initiative of solidarity promoted several years ago by the Italian Episcopal Conference as a concrete response to the challenges posed by contemporary migration movements..

"For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me" (Mt 25:35-36)

These words are a constant admonition to see in the migrant not simply a brother or sister in difficulty, but Christ himself, who knocks at our door. Consequently, even as we work to ensure that in every case migration is the fruit of a free decision, we are called to show maximum respect for the dignity of each migrant; this entails accompanying and managing waves of migration as best we can, constructing bridges and not walls, expanding channels for a safe and regular migration. In whatever place we decide to build our future, in the country of our birth or elsewhere, the important thing is that there always be a community ready to welcome, protect, promote and integrate everyone, without distinctions and without excluding anyone

The synodal path that we have undertaken as a Church leads us to see in those who are most vulnerable – among whom are many migrants and refugees – special companions on our way, to be loved and cared for as brothers and sisters. Only by walking together will we be able to go far and reach the common goal of our journey.

Condolences

In faith and love, we extend our heartfelt sympathy to the family and friends of one of our parish's founding members Adeline Janik, who passed away on September 17, 2023 at the age of 98 at Holy Family Nursing Home. We join with them in prayer during this difficult time of loss. Per Adeline's wishes, there will be no funeral.

To God, the dead do not die, and in death our life is changed, not ended. One day we shall all be joyfully re-united, when the love of Christ, which conquers all things, destroys even death itself. Then, "God will wipe away every tear from our eyes. Death will be no more; and mourning and crying and pain will be no more." (Rev. 21)

Confident in Mary, Mother of us all, we entrust to her the soul of our departed sister so that she may present her to Jesus. Eternal rest grant unto Adeline, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her. May she rest in peace. Amen.

Congratulations Sacrament of Baptism

Congratulations as Milo Ouellette, son of Anthony and Jenna Ouellette, was baptized on Saturday, September 16, 2023. May we welcome Milo into our Catholic family and keep him and his family in our prayers. May God bless and keep you Milo.

Video – Archbishop LeGatt: Two Paths Towards Solidarity with the Indigenous

In this first of a series of videos on how we can all become more aware of the past and present realities of Indigenous people, with the goal of reaching out to the Indigenous in friendship and justice, Archbishop LeGatt proposes two initiatives that, serving as potential first steps, can help us come closer to walking together with Indigenous people, here at home.

The first is the "Listening to Indigenous Voices" program, which will first be offered in French, starting Thursday October 5 at Saints-Martyrs Canadiens Parish (Look forward to an English language opportunity in the New Year!). These eight meetings, led by Oblate Brother Thomas Novak, are an invitation to deepen our knowledge and open our hearts.

For more information or to register, visit the "Walking Together" section of the diocesan website, www.archsaintboniface.ca. And if you're already interested, contact Daniel Bahuaud at 204-594-0277 or communications@archsaintboniface.ca to register.

The second initiative is the online course "4 Seasons of Reconciliation". This course takes about three hours, to complete, but everyone can follow it at their own pace. The Archdiocese has secured sixty places, available on a first come, first-served basis. Again, for more information or to register for this course, contact Daniel Bahuaud at 204-594-0277 or communications@archsaintboniface.ca

National Day for Truth and Reconciliation and Orange Shirt Day September 30, 2023

Both the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation and Orange Shirt Day take place on September 30. The day honours the lost children and Survivors of residential schools, their families and communities. Recognizing this day is important in the process of reconciliation. Orange Shirt Day is an Indigenous-led grassroots commemorative day that honours the children who survived residential schools and remembers those who did not. Information on the origin of this day can be found at www.orangeshirtday.org.

On September 30, we encourage all parishioners to wear orange to raise awareness of the tragic legacy of residential schools, to honour Survivors and to promote relationships of friendship and deep respect.

New Video - Archbishop LeGatt: A Reflection on the Upcoming Provincial Election

With the upcoming provincial election, Archbishop LeGatt offers a reflection on our moral responsibility as Christians to vote. Indeed, informing our conscience on various party platforms and making an informed vote according to our values, convictions, and beliefs is fundamental to our lives as responsible Christians and citizens.

Let us not shy away from getting involved in the democratic process, and continue to advocate for the good of all. And foremost, let us pray for this upcoming election, for the various debates that will precede it, and especially for those officials who will be elected to serve the common good. May the Lord bless and enlighten them and allow for greater justice and charity to spring forth in our society.

If you would like a good starting point to inform your coming vote, the Catholic Conscience organisation has prepared a set of comprehensive online and printable voter resources for October's provincial election. These materials are intended to guide Catholics through a process of non-partisan, prayerful reflection while arming them with the materials they need to vote wisely.
